The witness said that he had been present at the board dinners, and while than the servants of the State, who were than the servants of the State, who were serving without pay, deserved.

Mr. Goodwin said that as rector of Bruton Church, he desired to state that there had never been any lack of harmony in his church since he had taken charge.

Judge Taylor Garnett, ex-member of the board, and a resident of Mathews county, was the next witness called. He served during Dr. Foster's term. Dr. Foster's reputation was as high as any man he ever knew. man he ever knew,
"As an officer, I have never known a man he ever knew,

"As an officer, I have never known a man more astute or more devoted to his duty than Dr. Foster."

Judge Garnett said he had known Dr. Foster since 1859, and that he had always stood for all that was good.

Colonel Lawless read from the records of the board, testimonials offered Dr. Foster and signed by the committee, of which Mr. Clowes and Mr. Cole were members.

Judge Garnett said that Mr. Cole, Mr. Clowes and blinself visited the Contral and Southwestern, and on their return congratulated themselves because the Eastern was better than the others. He said the food furnished was good, but that he would favor better food if the State would appropriate more money. He said the was in favor of giving the pay patients better food, but that Dr. Foster said there should be no difference, and that he (witness) thought he was right.

Judge Garnett, in speaking of the Bell suicide in answer to Mr. Guid, said that he voted to exonerate the officers, and that he stood by his action.

Colonel Lawless asked if he would atterwards have said that he did not he.

Colonel Lawless asked if he would atterwards have said that he did not be lieve the facts were true when he vote for them, as Mr. Clowes had done.

Lack of Harmony:

Lack of Harmony:

Lack of Harmony:

Witness said that there was but one answer to that question.

Judge Garnett said that there was a lack of harmony between the special board, composed of Messrs, Clowes, Cole and hingelf, and the superintendent.

"I DO NOT THINK THAT MR.
CLOWES FELT VERY KINDLY TO-WARDS DR. FOSTER."

JUDGE GARNETT TOLD OF HOW MESSRS, CLOWES AND COLE HAD ATTEMPTED TO ROB THE SUPERINT TENDENT OF ALL HIS RIGHTS OF APPOINTMENTS.

He said he had opposed the 'scheme, and had taken, the matter to the general board, every member of which had voted with him, except Clowes and Cole.

He said Clowes and Cole had selected by Henderson as first assistant, while he was for Dr. Williams, whom he considered an excellent gentleman. He world for Dr. Henderson because for williams resigned 'because of the handwriting on the wall."

Judge Garnett said all the officers and attendants at the hospital were not paid than $1 a day. "If your wives and daughters were here you would look the wives and daughters of others." Continuing Judge Garnett said:

"I don't believe a word of the stories told here of the inhumanilies of Dr. Williams. He was a fine man and very efficient."

Judge Garnett said that the State was at no expense as far as he was concern-ed in purchasing whiskey and cigars for the use of the hoard, for he used nor the use or the board, for he used neither.

He spoke in detail of the affairs of the hospital, and of the duties performed by the members of the board, going again over the "coal incident."

Judge Garnett said that he was in favor of a suggestion made by Chairman Sadler, of putling the price and the award in adjoining columns.

Chairman Sadler:
"I am glad I've made one suggestion which meets with approval."

Colonel Lawless:
"So am I."

"So am I."
The committee adjourned until 2:30 o'clock.

Judge Garnett continued his testimony. He said Dr. Foster was active in watch-ing the Montague building when it was constructed. In speaking of the contracts, he said that purchases were made by contract on a cash basis. Chairman Sadler: "That is only your opinion?"

Judge Garnett:
"No, that is my deliberate judgment."

Turn Foster Out.

Witness said he understood Clowes to

"Every one in Williamsburg knows that Mr. Clowes and De Bourg knows that Mr. Clowes and Dr. Foster were not friends."

Mr. Spencer said he had told Clowes that he would testify to this matter and that he did not deny having made the statement. He said that it was common knowledge that the two men are unfriendly and that any resident of Williamsburg would testify to this fact.

Mr. H. Gregory Spencer, a merchant of Williamsburg, was then called to the stand. In answer to a question as to the relations existing between Dr. Foster and Mr. Clowes, witness said that in the Colonial Inn, in 1903, Mr. Clowes introduced to Mr. J. B. C. Spencer, Dr. Henderson, "I WANT TO INTRODUCE YOU TO DR. HENDERSON, THE NEXT SUPERINTENDENT OF THE EASTERN STATE HOSPITAL." Witness said that was before Dr. Henderson was elected first assistant physician.

A Republican.

A Republican. Chairman Sadier: "You are a Republican and Clowes a Democrat?"
Mr. Spencer-"He has changed several times. I never have. It is said he has been a Republican and also a Demo-

Witness said he had never sold a cent's Witness said he had never sold a cent's worth of supplies to the institution since Mr. Brooks was elected steward. He said he was a Republican and did not think it worth while to bid.

Mr. J. B. C. Spencer, proprietor of the Colonial Inn, of Williamsburg, was sworn. He testified that he recollected Mr. Clowes introducing Dr. Henderson to him as the next superintendent of the Eastern State Hospital. It was on Sunday, he said, the summer of 1903, and was Dr. Henderson's first visit to Williamsburg.

Dr. Henderson was afterwards elected first assistant physician.

plained that he did not mean to say that the scraps from the attendants' table were used for hash, but what was left were used for hash, but what was left in the dishes.

Witness said that there were now planty of biscuits, and that the patients had nicknamed them "Sadler's photographs," in honor of the chairman of the investigating committee.

Mr. H. D. Cole was recalled, and testified that no politics entered into the reduction of the salary of Mr. Bowry, the night watchman, who had testified that he had voted for Martin and that Clowes had reduced his salary.

In answer to Dr. Dunn, Mr. Cole said the Eastern State Hospital was in first-class condition, and as well managed an class condition, and as well immaged as any other institution in the State.

Mr. Cole said that he thought Colonel Taylor was wrong when he said the local member (Cole) thought he owned the hospital. He said Colonel Taylor did him and the other local directors a great intustice.

Mr. Cole:

"Everybody works,"

(Not even exclude 'father.'")

Mr. Cole sald that Mr. E. H. Clowes was under Dr. Wise and that he knew of no Democrats that were. He said that he had never seen Mr. Clowes go into Dr. Foster's house and he did not believe there was any social intercourse between the two men.

Mr. Robert Lee Spencer was recalled and said that Mr. E. H. Clowes had not spoken to him since he testified before the Senate secret investigation.

Dr. Southall, second assistant physician, was recalled. He said he had examined all the patients, who had been treated by Dr. Williams and could not find any sears on any of them. He said there were on the male side 50 old soldiers-27 epileptics, 7 "seniles" and 10 consumptives. Dr. Southall said the consumptives should be absolutely separated and that "seniles" should not be received in the asylum. There is now no place to put these men. The old soldiers, witness said, should be kept at the "homes" and looked after, "They should not be here," said Dr. Southall.

The committee adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. A. P.
